MAYOR TO ISSUE THREE PROCLAMATIONS AT CITY COUNCIL MEETING
Local Groups Request Recognition

Pocatello Mayor Brian Blad will be issuing three proclamations this Thursday, October 6, 2011 at the City Council Meeting, which is scheduled to begin at 6:00 p.m.

The first proclamation recognizes October 20, 2011 as International Credit Union Day. This proclamation recognizes the contributions credit unions make to our communities. It also encourages citizens to express their appreciation to our local credit unions for the service and commitment they give to the community. The proclamation is being done at the request of ISU Federal Credit Union.

The second proclaims October 9 through 15, 2011 as Fire Prevention Week. It recognizes fire as a serious public safety concern and encourages individuals to be careful with candles, heating/electrical equipment, cooking equipment and more. It also encourages citizens to support the fire safety efforts and activities of the Pocatello Fire Department.

The final proclamation is in honor of Community Planning Month in October 2011, and is being done at the request of the City of Pocatello's planning professionals. The proclamation recognizes how community planning and plans can help manage change in cities. It also encourages citizens to thank our local planners for their contributions.
