Get Your Geek On

Geek trivia contest for adults set for Saturday, February 11, 2012

Pocatello's Marshall Public Library, 113 South Garfield Avenue, is hosting a geek trivia contest for adults at the College Market, 604 South Eighth Avenue, on Saturday, February 11th. Trivia starts at 2:30 p.m.

Geek trivia quizzes your knowledge of subjects considered "geeky," including literature, fantasy, pop culture, history, science, math, video games, etc. We will have two rounds of trivia with the highest combined score taking home first prize. People may participate in teams or individually. Prizes will be awarded to the top three scores. A sample of questions may be viewed on the Marshall Public Library Facebook page.

This event is being held in conjunction with the library's introduction of a new collection: graphic novels for adult audiences. For further information, please contact Jamie Bair at 232-1263 x41.
